

Why would you want to know about people from the past?

- What's interesting about them?
- If you could ask someone from the past one question, what would it be?
- What does looking at people from the past tell us about ourselves?

What can DNA tell us about where people from the past have come from?

- How is that useful?
- What does it tell us about ourselves?
- Would you want to look at your own DNA? Why?

If you could bring back an animal from the past what would it be?

- Why would that be good?
- What could happen if you did?
- Should you do it?
